MAJOR J. LILLY

The Candidate for the Kansas City
Court of Appeals Doing
Well

MAJOR J. LILLY

When Major (now he is not an army officer, for his first name is Major and was given to him by his parents) Lilly visited St. Joseph a month ago in his search for votes for the Democratic nomination for judge of the Kansas City court of appeals, he made many friends and was ably championed by Mr. J. J. Cain, manager of the Equitable Life Insurance Co., who is an old schoolmate. When he again returned he made more, and since his last departure the good work he started has grown to formidable proportions and he now is one of the strong candidates in this section for that important position.

Major Lilly has made a thorough canvas of the state and it is predicted by his friends that when the polls close on next Tuesday night he will have the desired nomination.

JUDGE ARNOLD VISITS THE CITY

JUDGE G. B. ARNOLD

Judge Glendy B. Arnold of St. Louis was in the city Tuesday in the interest of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for judge of the supreme court, in division No. 2. Judge Arnold is a judge of the St. Louis circuit court, and is strongly endorsed by the bench and bar and the press of his home city. The supreme court is now about three years behind with its docket and although it has had the assistance of four commissioners during the past five and a half years, the court has been unable to bring its docket down to date. Judge Arnold's friends say that he would be able to render a great service to the state in assisting the court to clear up the present congested condition of its docket.

Judge Arnold is a native Kentuckian, the son of a Christian minister, 41 years of age, and is in vigorous health. Two years ago he was nominated for judge of the circuit court and led his ticket by an average of 6,327 votes, in a Republican landslide in St. Louis.

Judge Arnold points out the fact that the "Blue Book" for 1915-16, page 169, shows that Southwest Missouri now has two judges, one commissioner and the clerk of the court representing Southwest Missouri in the supreme court, and if his opponent, who is from Joplin, should be elected, then Southwest Missouri will have three judges of the court. Judge Arnold states that he refers to this fact only because his opponent is claiming that Southwest Missouri has no representation in the supreme court.

EMMONS VISITS CITY

The Candidate for Secretary of State
From Callaway Given a Pleasant Reception

Hon. James Horace Emmons of Fulton, the capital of the "Kingdom of Callaway," one of the rock ribbed and true tried strongholds of Democracy, spent Monday in the city the guest of his old-time friend, Tom S. Duane of the Metropolitan police force. While here he was taken to the prominent Democrats of the city by Mr. Duane and made many friends by his pleasing address and his able presentation of his claims.

Mr. Emmons is a most pleasing gentleman and his brand of Democracy is of that sort which is bred in Calla-way and fostered on the products of that famous Democratic county. He is running on a platform which admits of no question and one that people can endorse. He left Tuesday for Savannah and from there will tour the northwest counties.

HUNT FOR SHERIFF

Is Making a Strong Fight for the Nomination and Is Receiving Much Support

JAMES C. HUNT

James C. Hunt, candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, while he has made no extravagant display of his desires, has gone steadily ahead and worked—which is an important factor in a race such as the present one has developed into. It is hard and energetic work which wins races of this sort, and Mr. Hunt seems capable of almost any sort of exertion and effort. Mr. Hunt is a most excellent citizen and a good business man—a man who is capable of filling any office to which he may aspire with credit to the people and honor to himself.

Vote for John L. Bradley for State Auditor

BECAUSE the unanimous support given his candidacy by Organized Labor will make his name worth thousands of votes to the Democratic party in November.

BECAUSE he is fair minded and honorable; he resigned a good position to run for Auditor, refusing to hold onto one fat job and use the taxpayers' money to get another.

BECAUSE his chief opponent, Mr. Gordon, now holding the office, is not entitled to a third term.

BECAUSE his other opponent, Mr. Wayland, has a permanent job as assistant sergeant-at-arms of the U. S. Senate, at $2,500 a year, and has continued to receive this salary while campaigning for Auditor.

"Good for You!"

"I Say, Joe, that was some ciout you hammered out. These 'homers' are the ones that count. That one of yours will sure 'sew up' this game. You think it funny to see an old fellow like me so interested, but I feel as young and frisky as a kitten.

"BLATZ Beer is responsible—I've been drinking it for well nigh fifty years. It keeps me toned up and makes me healthy and strong.

"You fellows should drink

Blatz

The best
beer brewed"

George Stovall, for four years manager in the big leagues, in an editorial in the Kansas City Star, says: "And here's another thing that may sound odd, but it's true just the same, and every old ball player will tell you so: a glass or two of beer after a game does not hurt any ball player—on the contrary, I believe it is a good thing. The player has expended a lot of energy; is hot through and through and a glass of beer will do him good. I've done that all my life, and nine out of every ten ball players who have played the game for ten or twelve years have done the same thing and will tell you so."
